Forecast

With the dawning of an age so dawns a new school, Twin Lakes High. In the beginning, as in anything new and different, change has taken place and with it chaotic conditions have arisen. The first graduating class of Twin Lakes High has had to bear many pressures during these alterations. After the changes have been accepted, a smoothing over period begins. Thus paving the way for future endeavors.

Students have gradually begun to form new traditions and mold the school for future years. Most of our new traditions center around extra curricular activities. A prime example of these traditions is the changing of the mascot. Today we find ourselves led to victory after victory by the Twin Lakes Ram. We also find ourselves forming new traditions in our daily routine with the election of co-officers in the classes.

It has been left up to the first year in the life of this new school to learn how to deal with the many conflicts brought on by the combining of two groups with a past of such old and dear traditions. Now we find that friendships have been crystalized, a new spirit has awakened and the cornerstone for the future has been laid forever and ever.

We Dedicate

With the dawning of an age we tend to look back and honor those of a previous age. In keeping with this tradition, we are looking back and honoring Mrs. Frances Hennessey and Mrs. Esther Black.

Mrs. Hennessey, with true, dedication, taught thirty years at old Palm Beach High School. During twenty-five of those thirty years Mrs. Hennessey was the sponsor of the Editorial Staff of the ROYAL PALM. In her years as sponsor she laid the foundation for our new yearbook, the Aquarian and for this we wish to offer our sincere thanks.

The Aquarian

Co-sponsoring the former ROYAL PALM for twelve years, Mrs. Black proved to be a model of understanding and stability. She has given of herself in teaching to her students during a span of thirty-three years — twelve years at Follsberry, W. Va. and twenty-one years here in Palm Beach County. With her shining personality she is one of the most beloved teachers at Twin Lakes High School.

With deep esteem we do here by dedicate our yearbook to two ladies who have made the teaching profession an honored one.

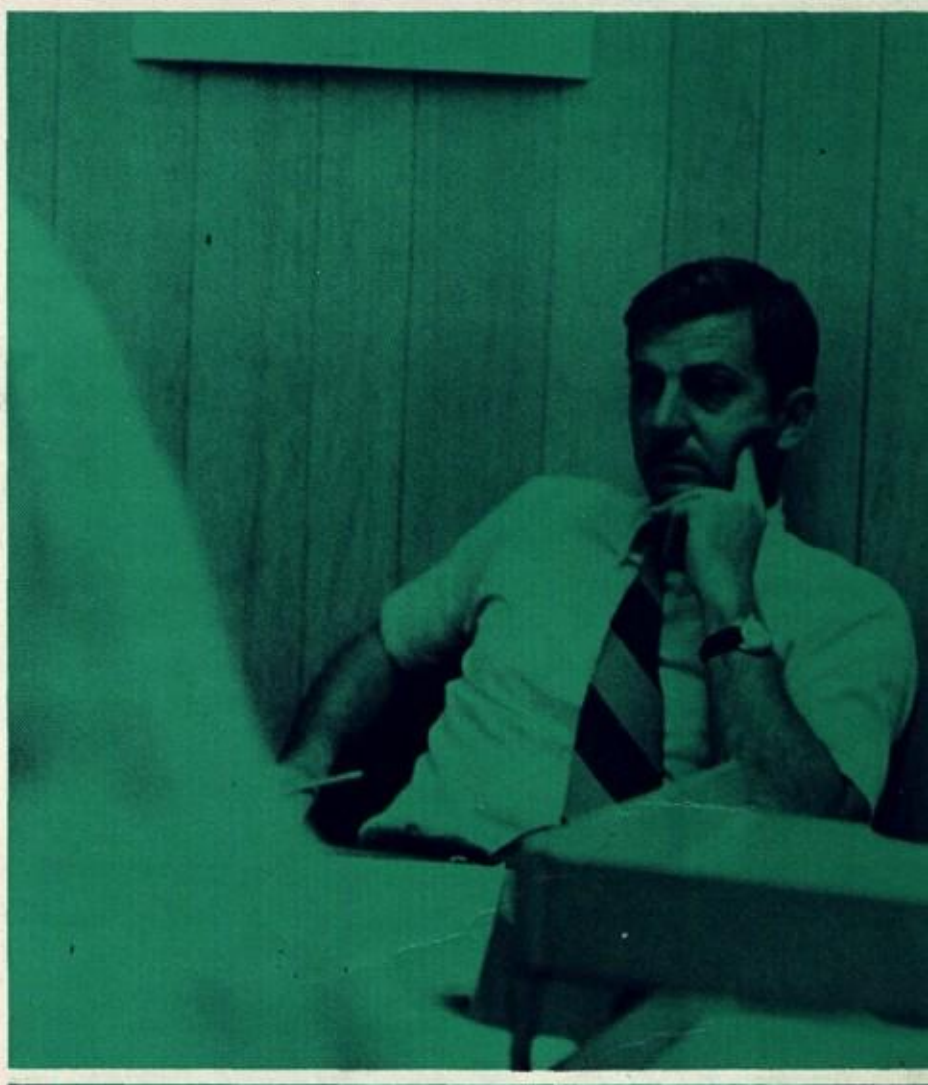
With an air of stubborness but total dedication our Faculty and Administration have excelled as the Taureans of our school. Like their forbearers in Philosophy and Education, they exhibit qualities of patience as they delve into many problems which seemingly have no answers.

While engaging in their search for truth they seek, also, to involve their students in the journey from ignorance to enlightenment. With the gift of profound study the Faculty and Administration succeed in any calling.



IN FLORIDA YOU CAN

Supervising Principal — Herbert H. Bridwell

To the students of Twin Lakes High

The 1970-71 school year has been one of adjustment for students and faculty of Twin Lakes High School. Two fine schools with proud traditions have combined into one. Our activities have given each of us a number of fine experiences to remember with warmth and fondness, and I am sure that our program next year will function just a little better because we all have had rich opportunities to grow in responsibility and cooperation.

I extend special appreciation to the students and sponsor who prepared our Yearbook.

My best wishes go with you as you accept the challenge of another year's work as you continue your education or at work.

Sincerely yours,

Herbert H. Bridwell

At The Top Of The Heap

This is where the buck stops. As principle of a school, a man must be willing to accept full responsibility for all actions of his faculty and students. In the final analysis this makes him a person who in many ways never pleases anyone. He must try to placate the faculty, students, parents, and the county office.

Second In Command

The Assistant Principles may be second in command but they have a busy enough schedule to be first. These jobs are many and their demands are great — supervising the schools curriculm, data processing, and taking over the reins of power when the principal is out, as well as working with the teachers individual problems. These two men have done outstanding work to help this new school function and for this we say thank you.

You surely can think up a better excuse than that.

As Roosevelt and Palm Beach High became one, the need for more than two deans became evident. As a result, the South campus is kept in check by Mrs. Meyer and Mr. Williams, while the North campus is the domain of Mrs. Holiday and Mr. Johnson. Besides discipline, the deans also try to help students with personal problems which might interfer with their studies.

Only Three Flights To Go

The guidance department has had a problem filled year with the merging of Palm Beach and Roosevelt High. At the beginning of the school year, the department had to handle almost a thousand schedule changes in the first month. Since then things have quieted down so that they have been able to council the college bound students and those who are in danger of failing.

Centers Of Knowledge

The libraries at Twin Lakes High School are the centers of knowledge for the student body. Valuable reference material is given to the students by the encyclopedias, dictionaries, and other sources of information. The faculty of Twin Lakes also use the library as their source for information for students through audio-visual aids.

Learn And Create

Students in the Art classes, taught by Mr. Mesa, Mr. Singletary, and Mrs. Piche experiment with ideas, form and color. By taking a course in art, a student gains an appreciation of his environment and a realization that art is a part of our very existence.

Creativity seems to flow from these rooms; as products such as paintings, sketches, and collages find their way into display cases around the school.

Students may concentrate on one area of study or be more diversified by taking a sampling in each subject area. Though the Business Department has not recently added new courses, it is constantly updating its materials and techniques.

The Drivers Education course is a valid and essential lesson in living. In July of 1970, a Florida law was passed stating that teenagers would be unable to attain their license at the age of sixteen without a course in driver education. Because of this the classes are crowded but the students do learn to be safe on the road.

Many people think that Speech and Drama is just for those who plan to make a career of the theater; but, more aptly, it is for those who wish to be able to communicate with their fellow man without fear and on an intelligent level.

Portraying different characters with a depth of feeling and emotion is one of their prime goals.

This year we find a broadening of experience and view points with the addition of Mr. Anderson to the Department.

Education With A Purpose

An employer would never let a letter like that go out.

Cooperative Education offers many opportunities for students. One of these opportunities is on-the-job training. Many students go to school a half-day and work the other half of the day. Not only do the students benefit from this type of education but employers will find themselves at graduation time with an employee with the aptitudes of experienced personnel.

In the organizations at our school there are three main points to live by:

1. Work for today
2. Live for the future
3. Look back on the past

Aries, the Ram, with its dauntless, courageous and energetic will governs the organizations here at Twin Lakes High School. Aries, like the organizations, enjoys making decisions and delights in carrying them out.

The free spirit of the organizations together with their straight forward ideas join as one to make them accepted and needed projects in our schools.

Anchor

"Anchored We Hold"

The Anchor Club has always been one of the leading clubs on the campus. Sponsored by Pilot International, the club has achieved many goals. Anchor provides services for underprivileged children and its members have the opportunity to gain the leadership and initiative needed in the school and community. Among their projects for this year they have held car washes, bake sales, and sponsored a track meet.

Aquarian

The purpose of The Aquarian is to produce a collection of memories and to provide a view of the year 1971 in the life of the students of Twin Lakes High School. This year's staff wanted to come up with an exciting and contemporary yearbook that would differ from the traditional memory book of Roosevelt and yearbook of Palm Beach High.

To accomplish this task required many hours of work after school and on weekends. It also called upon the ingenuity of the staff in deciding on theme, layout, and color combinations. Hopefully students and faculty will find it to be an enjoyable change.

Band

The Twin Lakes High School Band is one of the most active and colorful student organizations on the campus. During the regular academic year the band participates in a wide range of musical activities.

Those who are in the band treasure their membership very highly and consider their association with other band members as one of the most pleasant and valuable high school experiences.

It is true that the band probably requires more year-round time than most other campus activities. It is likewise true that few, if any, student activities are more richly rewarding in terms of fellowship, healthful recreation, and the personal gratification which comes from the performance of good music and the frequent opportunities to serve the school and community.

The band holds deep pride in striving to reach the highest musical goals possible, that in turn they may represent Twin Lakes High School and its student body and faculty in the most honorable fashion.

CBE

A cooperative education program especially for students desirous of business and office careers—secretarial, stenographic, clerical work.

Students attend school in the morning and work the job in the afternoons. Training is available in legal, medical, data processing, and many other office occupations.

At least one year of typing is required to enter the program, plus recommendations from teachers and guidance personnel.

The Twin Lakes CBE Club is affiliated with The Future Business Leaders of America and the Cooperative Education Clubs of Florida.

CECF holds a district conference in the fall and a State Leadership Conference in the spring.

FBLA sponsors district workshops during the year and a state conference in the early summer.

The objective of CBE is to bridge the gap between business training and office employment, and to encourage those interested in business careers.

Mixed Choir

Under the direction of Miss Virginia Carpenter, the Twin Lakes High School choirs play an integral part in our school life. The choirs perform at various school assemblies, churches, civic organizations and end the year with a large production or tour.

The choirs use various types of music for their performances. These include patriotic, spiritual, sacred and popular numbers. Like other organizations, the choirs held money raising projects such as bake sales, a Christmas paper sale, dinners and bazaars throughout the year.

The main purpose of the choirs is to achieve brotherhood through the mutual experience of singing.

Choir

The Rhythm Choir is a religious group which uses symbolic movement and facial expressions. The facial expression is the main purpose of the Rhythm Choir. Their eyes express meaning and their gestures are used to portray the feeling.

Much time is needed in order to correlate the gestures with the words of the song or poem which is being presented simultaneously with the performance of the Rhythm Choir.

This group has been in existance for three years during which time much improvement has taken place. With the assistance of Mrs. Carpenter and Tommy Young, the coreographer, the Rhythm Choir performs for various churches, clubs, and organizations throughout the year.

1970 Fighting Rams

To astrologers 1970 was the age of Aquarius. To TV sportcasters it was the year of the Quarterback. But to Palm Beach county athletic fans and participants it was the year of confusion.

Giants on the states prep scene were swept away and heard of no more. Such decades old schools and team nicknames as Roosevelt High Devils and Palm Beach High Wildcats were wiped out with a stroke of the pen. In this merger, to eliminate the dual school system in Florida, emerged a brand new school, TWIN LAKES. No more Wildcats or Devils, now they were the RAMS.

Like any marriage of convenience the first few weeks were full of toil and trouble. Everyone got in the act, the School Board, the parents, well-meaning (but often misguided) fans even the coaches and students, athletes and non-athletes alike.

Old loyalties, customs and habits of thinking die hard. But after a more than suitable time for mourning, cooler heads prevailed and soon the Rams were tearing up the gridiron just as their parents, the Wildcats and the Devils had done in days of yore.

Twin Lakes was lucky in that Coach Coffey was assigned to the head coaching job. He had produced outstanding teams, including two State championship teams at former Carver High in Delray. His hard working and dedicated coaching staff of: Dick Melear, Chuck Heninger, Jim Howe, Ed Jarmakowicz rallied around Coach Coffey's leadership and the Rams ended up with a mixed season of 5 wins and 4 losses.

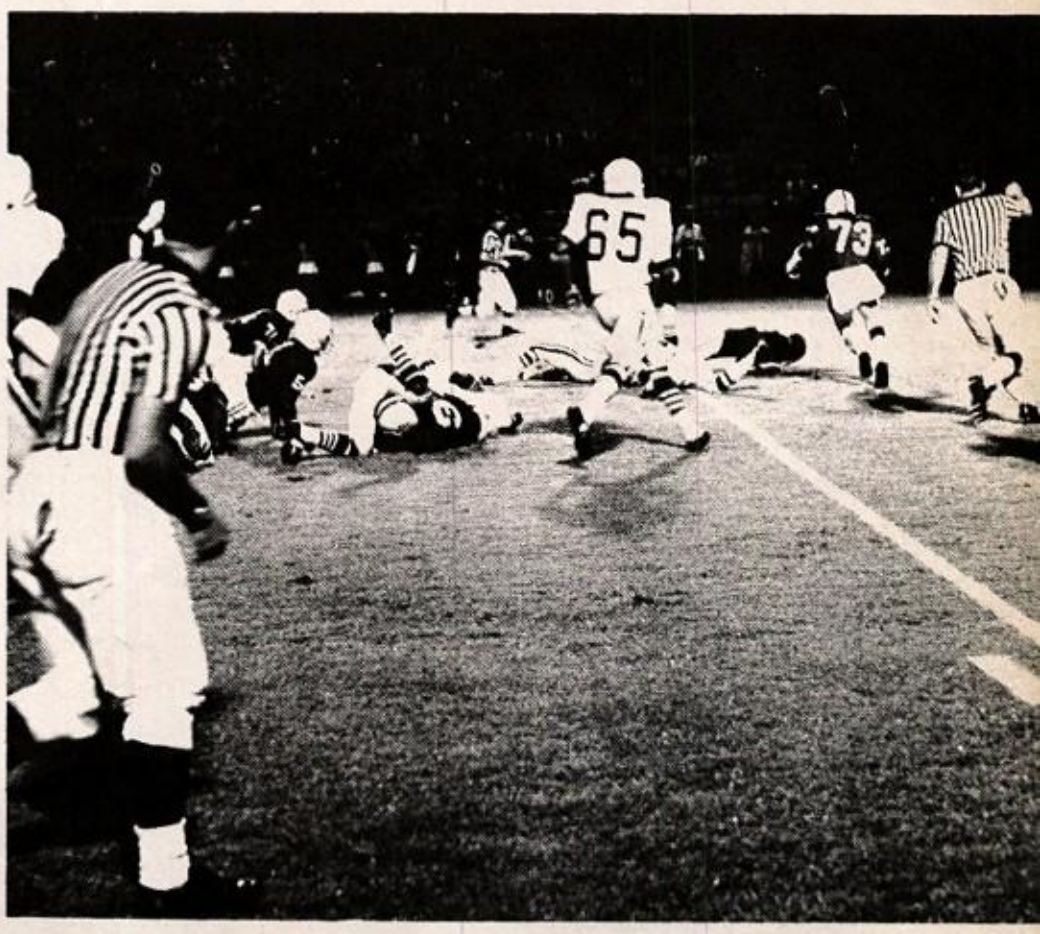
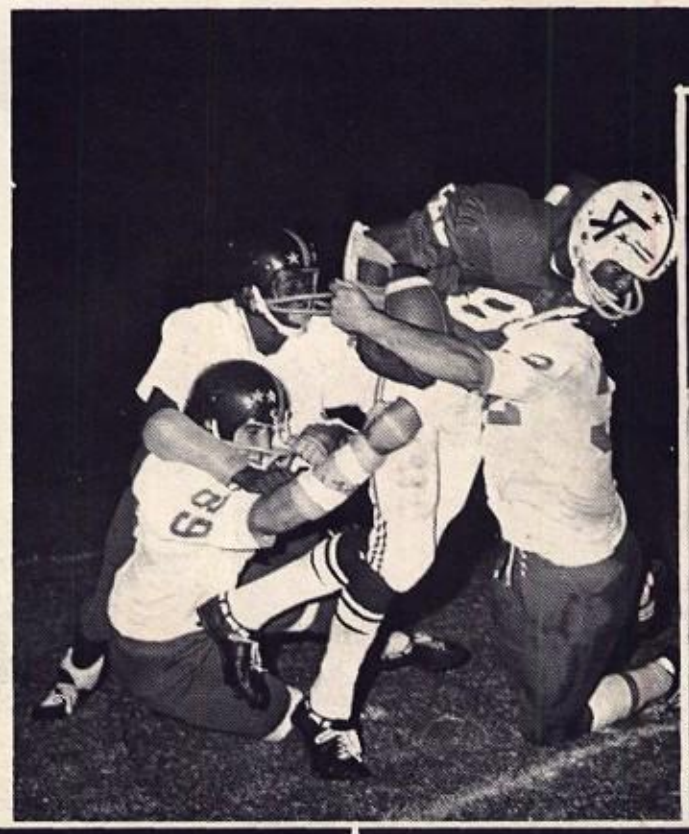
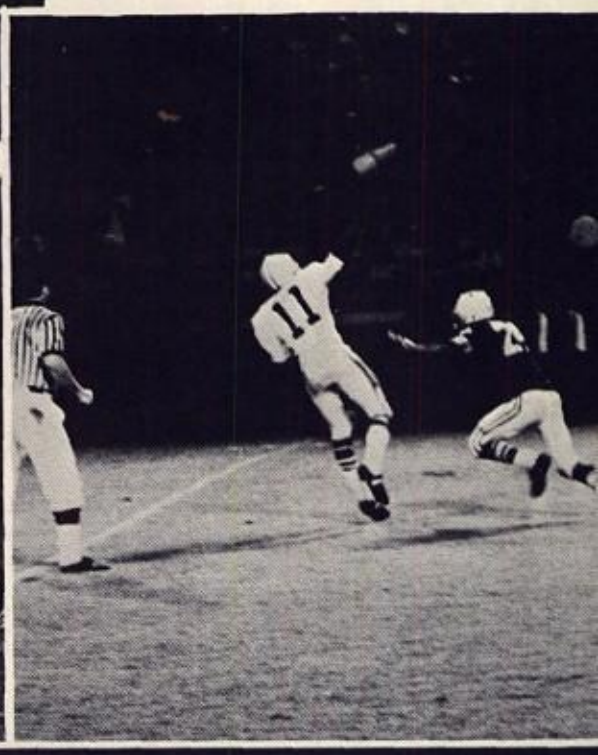
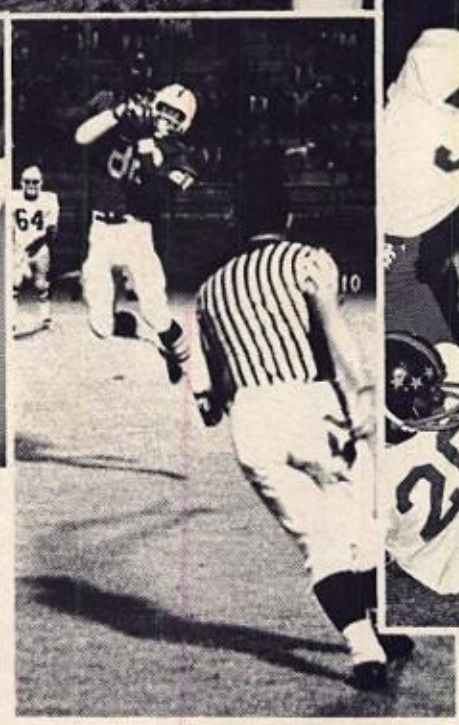
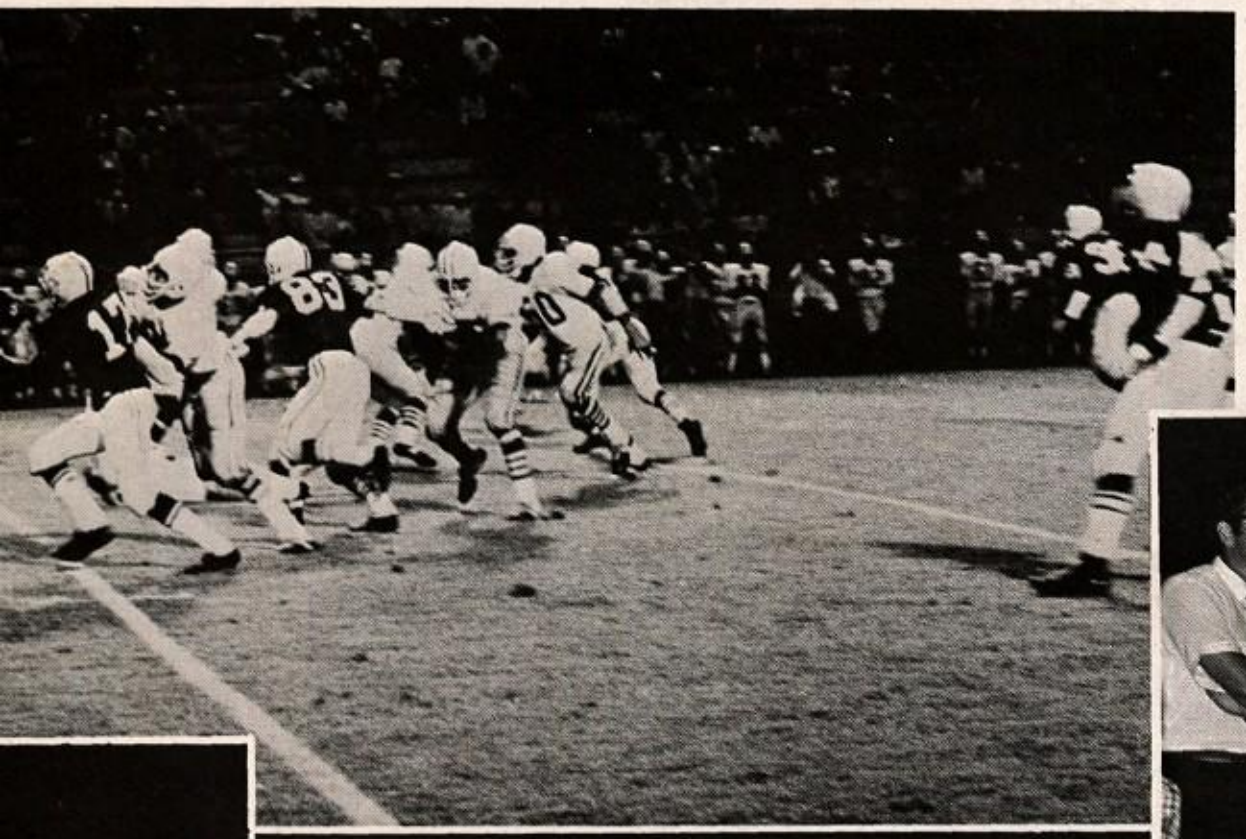
Do we still have the ball???

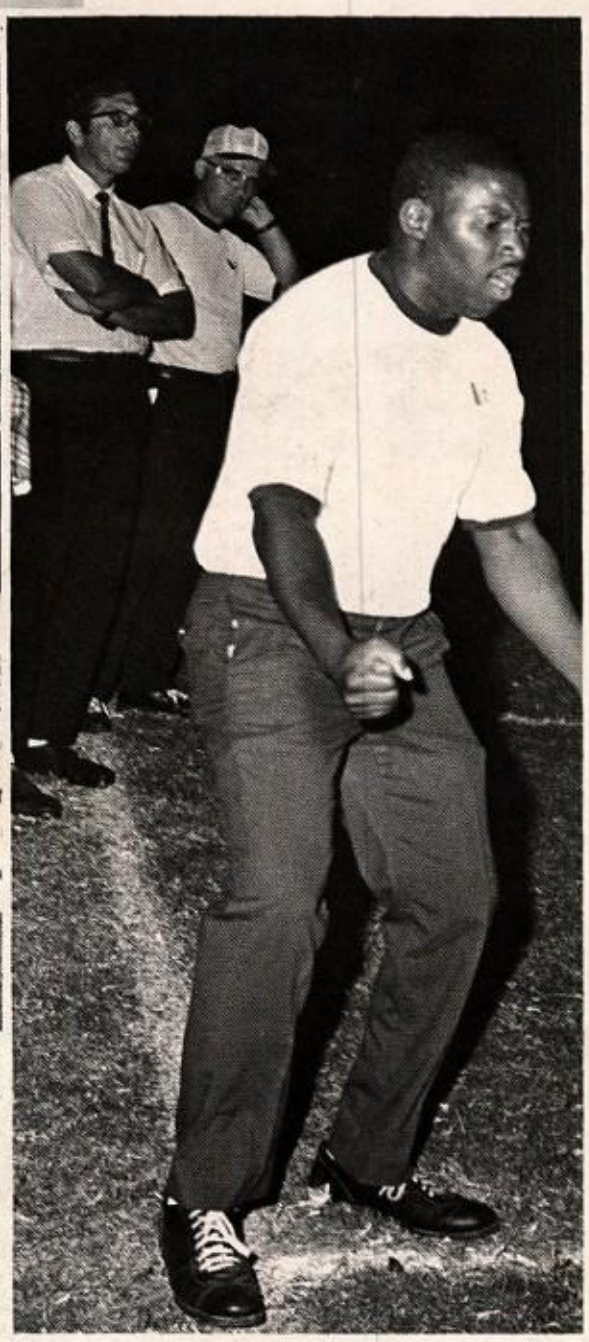


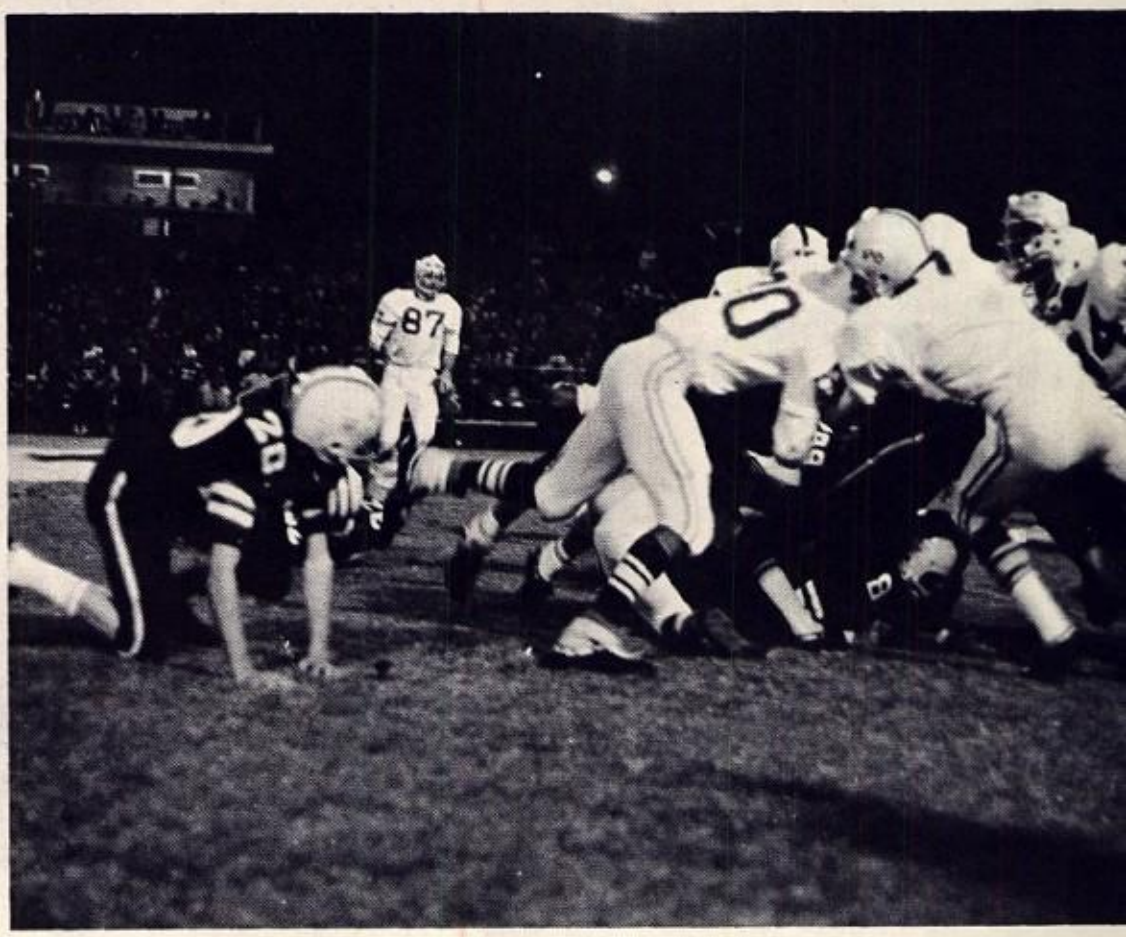












Floats are always a large part of the Homecoming festivities. In Second place was the Z-Interact float with the theme "Birth of Twin Lakes." Third place was Civitan-Civinette float with the theme "Rams Go to War." Fourth place went to Anchor Club with their theme "Southern Belle."

Homecoming "70"

On the way to victory.

"LET IT WAVE IN PEACE," was the theme of the winning float for this year's Homecoming. Presented by the Keyette-Key Club; this float truly showed the many long, hard hours that went into its' preparation. A well deserved first place winner.

The bonfires are getting smaller every year!

RECIPE FOR A CHAMPIONSHIP

I — Class AA School with an up an down basketball victory history

II — Class A School with a winning basketball tradition, including back to back State championships

III — A basketball coach who is known throughout the country for his contributions to prep-basketball

IV — Heaping measures of hard work, dedication, team work and determination

Sift carefully, but vigorously, all available talent of the first two ingredients. The result is a hard core of experienced, fast breaking, sharp shooting basketball stars and one of the best teams in Florida.

This core is kneaded and messaged carefully by the Florida coach of the year. Finally, add the number IV ingredients throughout the season.

The resulting mixture is placed in competition against some of the best Double A schools in the country and the result is THE TWIN LAKES SUNCOAST CHAMPIONSHIP BASKETBALL TEAM OF 1970-71, with a 25-2 overall record and 14-0 in their eastern division.

Ranked as high as number two in the State polls the Rams were 5th in State rankings by the end of the season. By adding a sprinkle of district championship for spice, the Rams ended their gourmet dish with a frosting of State Championship.

The Energetic Dozen

This year's Twin Lakes High School cheerleaders under the direction of Mrs. Helen Abbott and Mr. Barry Quigley combined with a "Fighting Ram Mascot" to boost morale and raise spirits at all the football and basketball games. The cheerleaders, always keeping in mind the theme "Spirit", have been the center of pep and fight for many years. This years' captain is Debbie Dunbar, her co-captains are Marie Chiodo and Jackie Taylor. Combined with the admiration of the rest of the girls, this was certainly a year to remember.

Off to the races!!!

Rams On The Ball

Under the supervision of Jim Howe, the tennis team has worked very hard this year. The team has participated in matches against Forest Hill, John I. Leonard, Pahokee, Ft. Pierce-Central, Suncoast and Lake Worth. They help hold money making projects, one being the sports Bar-b-que. Everyday at Howard they have an exhausting 3 hour practice, which makes them one of the leading teams in the county. We are very proud of the tennis teams accomplishments and hope there will be many more.

They Never Let Go

Wrestling is a relatively new sport in this area, but one which will pick up spectators as time goes on. This year's team is under the dedicated leadership of coach Frank Haas.

In this year of new comings and goings, wrestling had its new addition with cheerleaders. This year's captains are Cathy Elliot and Lisa Ann Schiff. Along with the cheerleaders and student body's support this can be truly called the "year of the wrestler".

They're Out To Tee

The title of this years golf section "They're Out To Tee", does not by any means refer to the team's lack of interest or ability. Along with the dedicated leadership of Coach Charles Heninger and the many long hours that are put in to this golf team will not be unaccounted for.

The two fish swimming in different directions signify the fact that Pisces can choose to either better himself and his position or be content to drift along with the stream.

Like Pisces, students may either strive to better themselves or give up and drift.

With the future in mind it is hoped that the students of Twin Lakes High School will strive to better themselves to set an example for future classes.

Leaders Of Distinction

V. President: Ted Heninger

Treasurer: James Lamb

Secretary: Debbie Swank

Steve Wilk started in his Sophomore year at former Palm Beach High as 2nd Vice-President of the Student Council and each year has taken a step until he has become the Student Body Co-President. Through his involvement in Key Club, basketball, and track, he has earned the respect and admiration of the students of Twin Lakes High.

One of our most outstanding students, Sandra Davis, has shown her ability to lead not only in cheers as a cheerleader but also in the Student Council and National Honor Society. Sandra was voted, by the Senior Class to be Miss Senior and represents her class honorably.

Whether as J.V. cheerleader, kickoff queen, Student Council Sec., or class brain, Sydney Dodge always puts forth the best she has to offer. Z Club and the Senior Class too would feel at a loss without this smiling and friendly person in its ranks.

Senior Notables

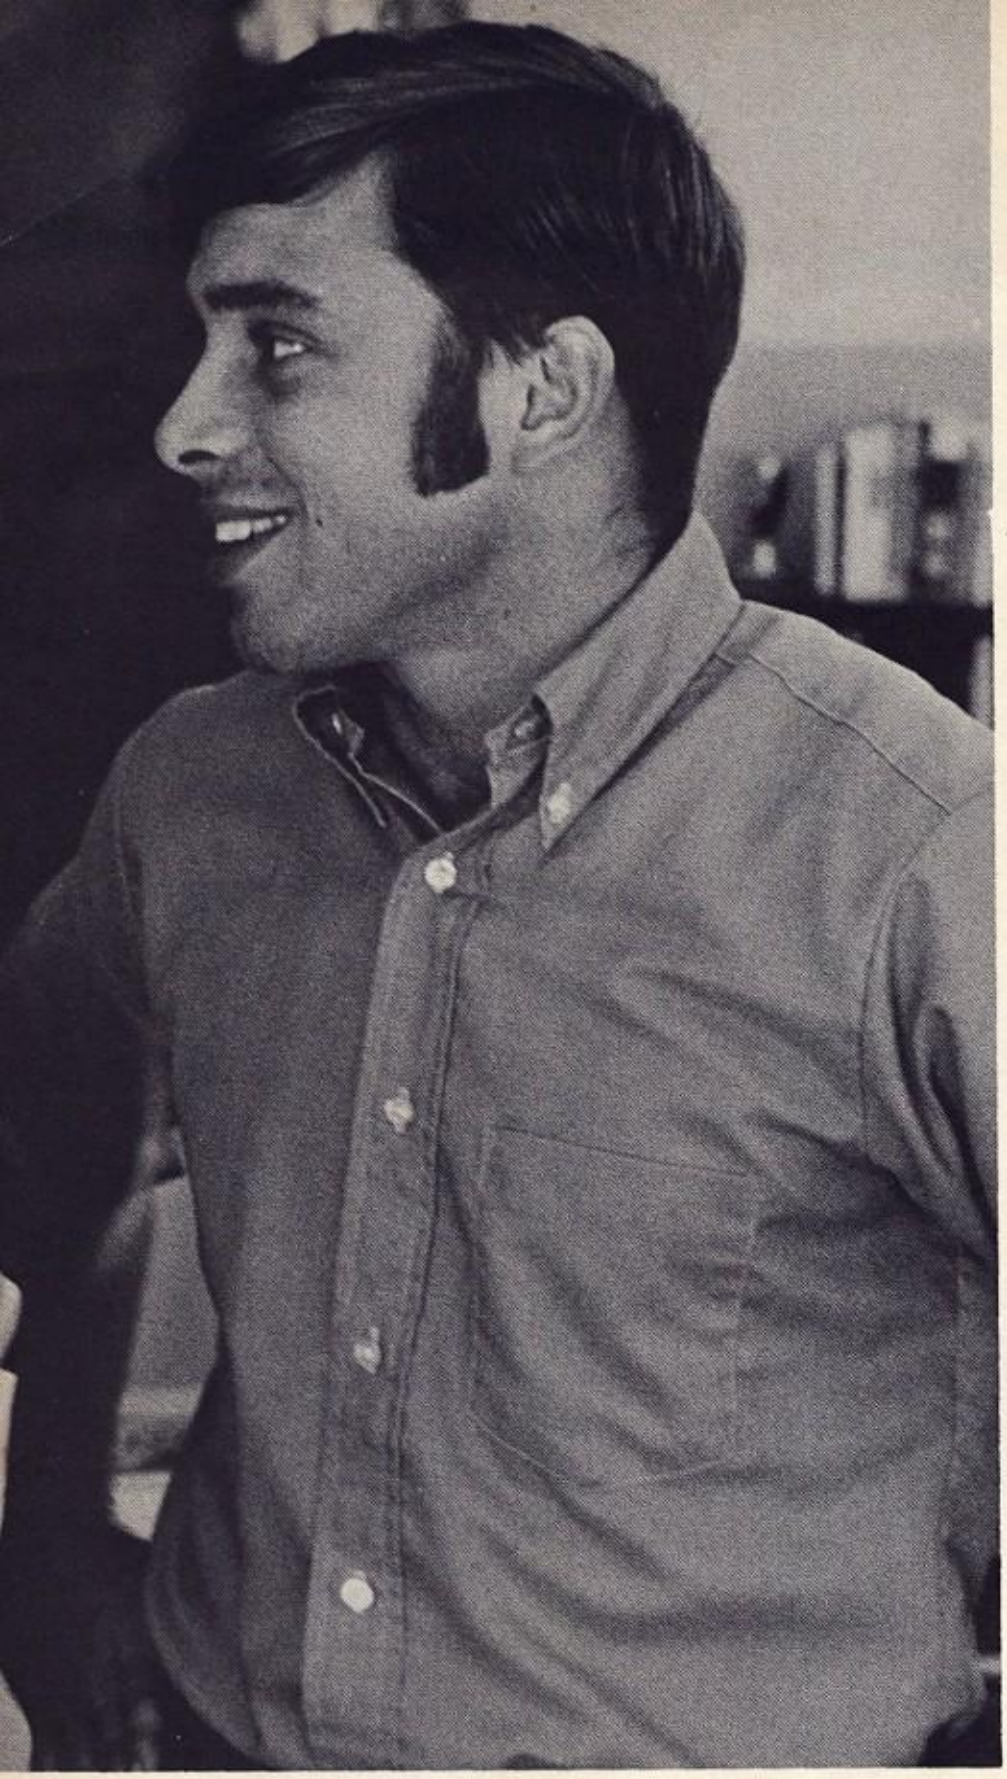
James Lamb is a unique person. He has great concern and compassion for friends (too many to be counted). His role at football games is that of song and spirit leader. He may be very intelligent and active in such things as Interact, Student Council, Senior Class, and German Club, but his contribution of spirit to Twin Lakes has been his greatest contribution.

87, the number Bill Overfelt made famous on the football field will long be remembered. His ability to lead the team on and also the Senior Class has never been hampered. Bill's great personality and all 'round good nature helps bring unity to our class.

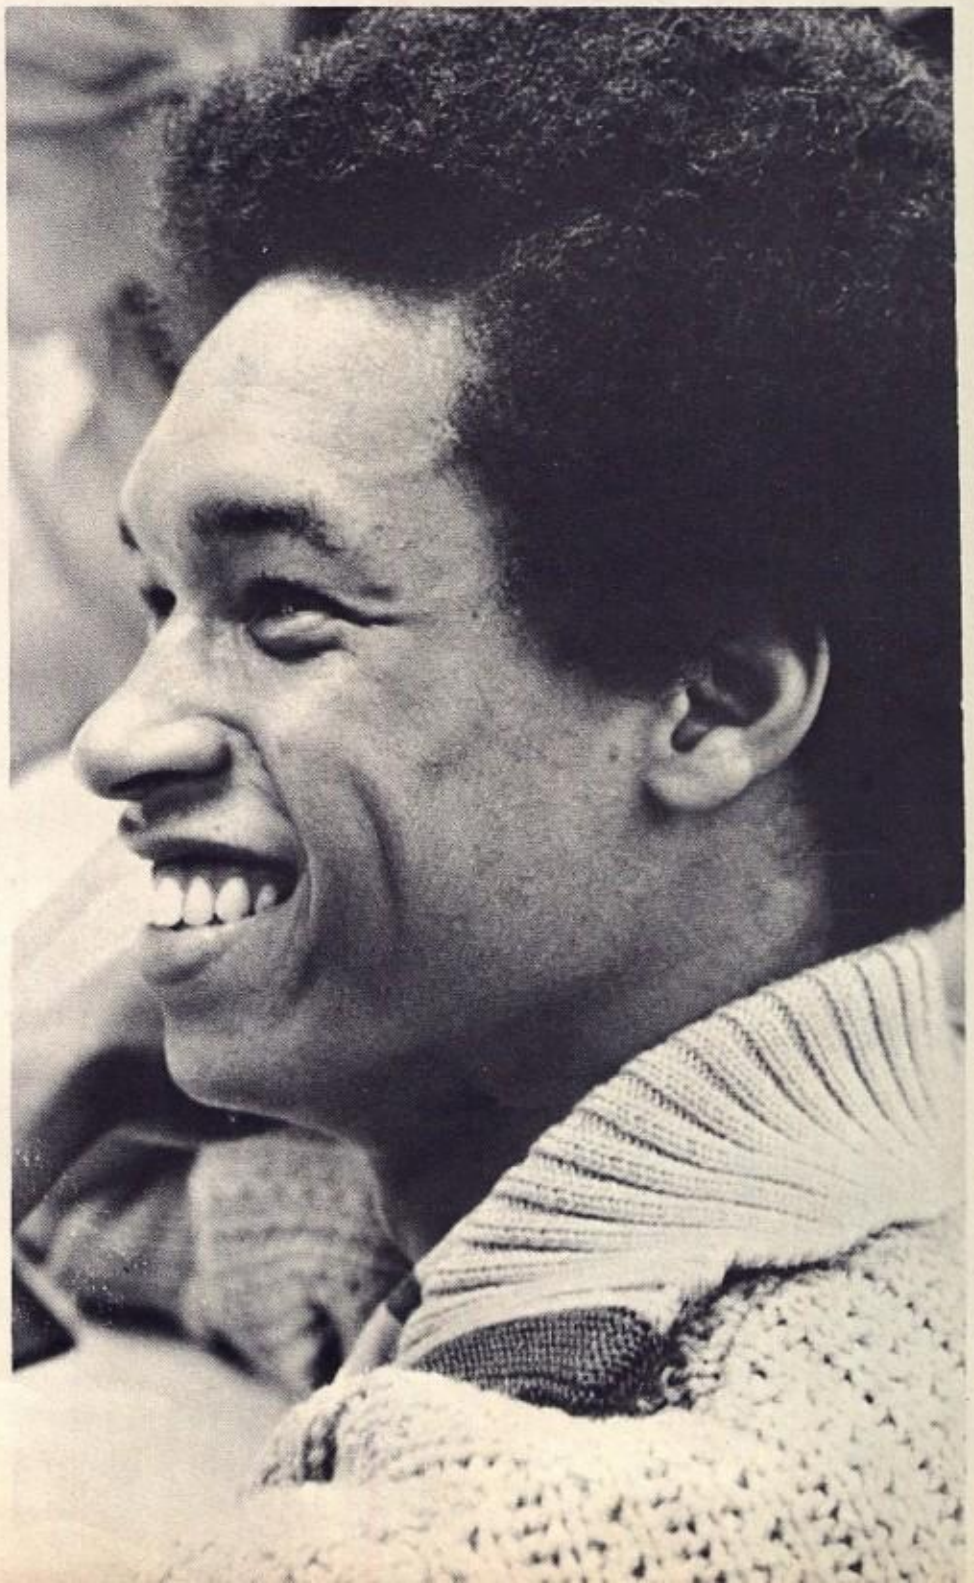
Bringing with her the school spirit from Roosevelt, our smiling, ever cheerful Jackie Taylor has led us in many rousing cheers for our fighting Ram team. With Jackie, our cheering squad is complete and so is the school year.



While being the Mad Punter for the fighting Ram team, No. 41 has led our class in other ways. As Vice-President of Class of '71, Ted Heninger adds to the unity and contributes much to the lighter moments at Twin Lakes High.

Chris Hunt added much to her Junior year at Roosevelt by being elected to her Student Council. She has astounded the students at Twin Lakes High with her bright smile and sparkling personality and has led us in victory cheers by being the bubbly cheerleader that she is.

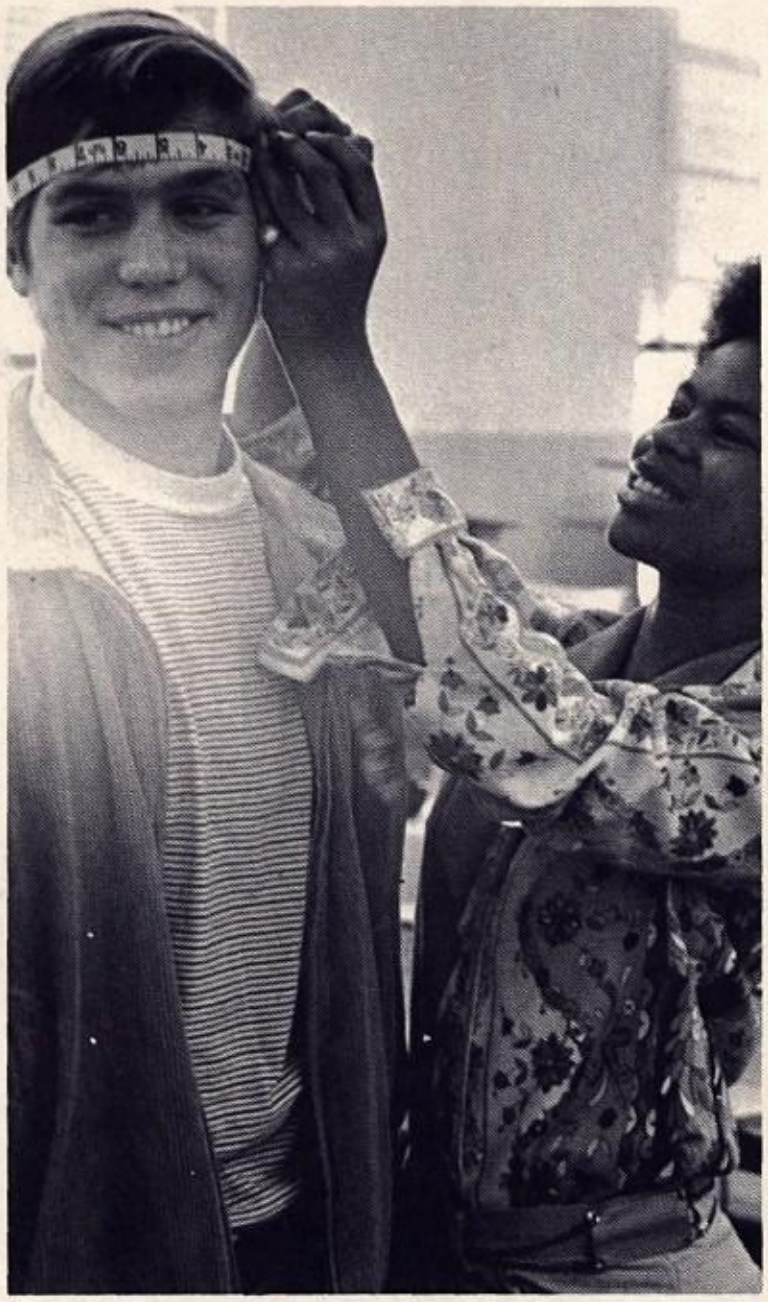
Fred Terrell, one of our Boy's State Representatives, has led the school in his ability to win people over. His special charisma has enticed people to elect him French Club President, Exchange Club Boy of the Month, and Senior Notable. Through his work on the Kaliedoscope he has extended to all a sense of brotherhood and fun.



The class of 71 is proud to have Debbie Swank represent them as Class Secretary and Senior Notable. Debbie has involved herself in activities such as Z Club, Yearbook, and Homecoming so deeply that they could not have succeeded without her.

"Neat as a Pin", Marc Gaylord has raced about making the Class of 71 and Key Club the best ever without losing his cool. His resounding NO has been heard by many fellow students as he has tried to make such projects as the Key Club-Keyette Homecoming Float succeed.

Anthony Fields has proven himself to be a capable leader as Co-President of the Class of '71. His rallying spirit among the students and members of the football team has made him the school booster. Anthony has truly worked for unity in the class.



16½ for Bur Divine as Ethel Finley measures for Caps & Gowns.

So YOUR Bills Are Paid Today —
But What About Tomorrow?

Debbie says, "The IN THING" is a passbook account at "The BIG FIRST" today where money for tomorrow accumulates like homework.

For example — $2.00 a week deposited at "The BIG FIRST" during the years in High School will, through the magic of daily compound interest, grow to more than $450.00 at graduation time.

Debbie says, "You'll like The BIG FIRST."

As The Sun Guides The Zodiac . . .

. . . so have we been guided by many people throughout the year. We, Debbie Harris and Debbie Swank, as editors-in-chief of the Aquarian, wish to thank all the people who made this book possible. The number of hours of work that goes into the making of a yearbook is large and so is the number of people who helped us.

First we wish to acknowledge our publisher, Delmar and their representative Mr. Tom Bernard, who let us in on all the latest scoops in yearbooks. Through Mr. Bernard's help and suggestions we were able to use effective methods, in publishing our book, we would not have otherwise known.

Special thanks goes to our photographers from Vincent Price Studios of Fort Lauderdale. Excluding their pictures, hard work and patience we would not have a yearbook. Also our thanks go to our staff photographers, Steve Schwab and Steve Josephsen for keeping up with our strenuous schedules.

In publishing a yearbook, money is often a menacing factor and our book was no exception. So we would like to extend our appreciation to all our advertisers, without their support our book would have been financially unsound.

Many times during the year problems arose that only the principal could handle and Mr. Bridwell willingly worked with us to solve them. Sincere gratitude is expressed to Mr. Bridwell for all his help.

We could not conclude without gratefully thanking our hard working devoted staff who literally worked day and night to make our yearbook the best possible. The ideas the staff came up with, were imaginative and new and added a much needed measure to our yearbook. They indeed deserve the utmost recognition.

Our final thanks, appreciation, gratitude, admiration and especially love go to our sponsor Mrs. Deanne Underwood. Without Mrs. Underwood our yearbook would not have been presentable. Most of our ideas for the book originated with her. Mrs. Underwood came to us as a sponsor with bright contemporary ideas that only enhanced our work. Through her new ideas she inspired us to earnestly work for the best possible yearbook. Our year as editors has certainly been an interesting one. We have experienced and benefited from working under Mrs. Underwood so much that we shall cherish it most in our memories of high school.
